

Study for a funded MSc at the University of Glasgow

Scottish Funding Council funded MSc places available for study at the University of Glasgow

Interested in studying for your Masters in the field of Engineering or Computing Science?

Funded MSc places have been made available for the September 2013 intake at the University of Glasgow through allocated funding from the Scottish Funding Council. Places are available in the following programmes:

School of Computing Science:

MSc Information Technology*

MSc Software Development*

School of Engineering:

MSc Aeronautical Engineering

MSc Nanoscience and Nanotechnology

To find out about the programmes please visit our website

<http://www.gla.ac.uk/postgraduate/funded/>

* These programmes are intended for graduates of disciplines other than computing.

 Science graduates may apply for this programme.

Please note that these specific funded places are open to Scottish and EU students.

For further information please contact:

Katherine Henderson

College of Science & Engineering

Boyd Orr Building

University of Glasgow

Glasgow G12 8QQ UK

Tel: +44 (0)141 330 7479

katherine.henderson@glasgow.ac.uk