

5th International Scientific Research Congress

October 18-19, 2025 (Online)

Istanbul, Turkey

Dear Colleague,

We invite you to the "International Scientific Research Congress" to share your knowledge, research and experiences with the scientific community...

Submission applications for our October Congress are still ongoing. We would be happy to see you at our congress, which will be organized ONLINE on October 18-19 by the International Scientific Research Academy (isrAcademy).

We hope that our "multidisciplinary" congress, which will be participated by distinguished scientists from different geographies of the world, will contribute to science.

In our October 2025 congress, sessions will be organized in accordance with the themes and scientific disciplines we have announced in the fields of SOCIAL AND HUMANITIES, HEALTH, SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING.

You can access the books of previous congresses from the "Congress Books" menu.

You can find information about the congress content and all other details on our website:
