Beyond the Cookbook: A Blueprint for Instructional Redesign in Lab Education – EULiST Webinar Series on Professional Faculty Development

📅 30/04/2026 Date: 27 May 2026

We warmly invite faculty members from all partner universities of the EULiST Alliance to join our ongoing Webinar Series on Professional Faculty Development, currently dedicated to Innovative Teaching and Learning Methodologies.

This series brings together educators from across the EULiST network to explore forward-thinking pedagogical approaches, exchange best practices, and strengthen collaboration within our European academic community.

What you can expect:

- Discover the latest trends and developments in higher education
- Enhance your teaching strategies with practical, hands-on insights

- Collaborate and connect with peers across the EULiST network
- Learn from experienced professionals in university teaching

Upcoming Session

Beyond the Cookbook: A Blueprint for Instructional Redesign in Lab Education with Theodora C. Xenidou (National Technical University of Athens)

 27 May 2026 | 13:30 – 15:00

This session will explore innovative approaches to redesigning laboratory teaching beyond step-by-step instruction, empowering students to think critically, experiment creatively, and engage more deeply in the learning process.

Why participate?

Attendees will have the opportunity to:

- Explore current trends and innovations in university teaching
- Exchange ideas and experiences with colleagues across the EULiST European University alliance
- Acquire practical tools to enhance student engagement and learning outcomes

How to join

The webinar will take place online via the LUH Stud.IP platform.

To participate:

1. Log in using your EULiST credentials
2. Search for “EULiST Webinars”
3. Join the working group and access the session via BigBlueButton
